

RYLA - CODE OF CONDUCT

2023

RYLA 9920 is a program built on respect for each other, the environment we use to conduct the course and ourselves. As such our expectation is that all attendees adhere to our Code of Conduct during RYLA week.

An outline of our expectations is below, all attendees agree to this in advance of joining RYLA 9920.

- Awardees should treat the Willow Park camp staff, the camp buildings and facilities, and the environment, with courtesy and respect
- Awardees should treat each other and the Rotarians working in the camp with courtesy and respect.
- Awardees are expected to take full part in the camp program and attend all sessions.
- Awardees remain in the camp at all times unless on program outings.
- Awardees must not have a cell phone on them during the camp. If you arrive with a cell phone this MUST be handed in and can be safely stored by the organisers.
- Awardees will not bring cars to the camp.
- There will be no alcohol or drugs (except prescription) in the camp.
- There will be no sexual liaisons during the camp week.
- Smoking is permitted in designated areas outside of the buildings only.
- Harassment in any form is not permitted.
- Current health settings of the day are to be complied with including any public health measures in place at the time of the course.
- If sick, do not attend, if you feel sick at all during the course, please report it.

Administration of the Code

- All breaches of the Code of Conduct will be referred to the RYLA 9920 Chair and be acted upon immediately by way of a meeting to discuss any further involvement in RYLA
- The Awardee involved will have the right to be heard, and to have representation.
- It is expected that a major breach of the Code of Conduct will result in the Awardee being sent home.
- You will be asked to agree to this code in both the online application and by signing on arrival.
